Saturday, May 4, 1968, WRMC-FM will sponsor a folk concert in Dana Auditorium. The featured artist will be Peter Isaacson, from points in the Mid-West and the Village. He has performed here on several occasions in the past, in the Gamut and in the Crest Room. His success in the past indicates that again this concert will be well worth your while. Along with Peter, the New Faces and Art Bryan will be performing. The show starts at 7:00 PM and admission will be $1.00 per person and $1.75 per couple.

Saturday, April 27, 1968, Frank Williams and the Group will be performing in the Gamut. If you can't make it down to the Gamut, listen to WRMC-FM from 9 - 12:30.

WRMC---The R Stands for Rock

WRMC, the station which brings you every type of music from classical to jazz to pops, doesn't ignore today's sound of Rock and Roll. Monday through Thursday nights, WRMC presents its survey of the top hits and Old Gold from 9-11. Then on Friday nights, from 8-10:30, Bill Taylor puts on the most informal rock show on radio, live from Middlebury's Crest Room. Saturday is all rock from noon 'til 11PM. And because they don't have to make frequent breaks for commercial announcements, WRMC's DJ's feel free to play the longer songs from albums in addition to the survey and past hits. Whatever your rock tastes---hard or soft, progressive or "Old Gold"--- you will hear it all on WRMC-FM, Vermont's newest radio station.
